

BOSTON WINS Fourth Game Of World Series

	R	H	E
Boston Americans.....	030	110	100—6 10 1
Brooklyn Nationals.....	200	000	000—2 5 3

Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 11.—Spurred on by Tuesday's victory the Brooklyn Nationals resumed their counter charge against the Boston Americans today in the fourth game of the world's series in a futile attempt to break down the lead the champion American Leaguers held by one game.

"Our boys are batting at last," said Manager Wilbert Robinson of the Brooklyn just before having a war council with his men before the contest. "We are a batting team. We have looked over all the Red Sox pitchers except Leonard and we know now what to expect. I'll agree Boston has some fine hurlers, but my men feel that they can beat them."

An Ordinary Expectation.

The Bostonians regarded yesterday's defeat as nothing more than what might be expected to happen somewhere along the course of a seven-game series.

"The Red Sox play best in a pinch," remarked Jack Barry, the second baseman of the Boston team. "We have the edge and will hold it. Every one knows what our club has done when it faced a critical series or a single game."

Brooklyn did not mind the cold weather today. Elated by yesterday's defeat of the Red Sox, the enthusiastic crowd that came early today to the field would have felt comfortable on an iceberg.

The following is the lineup:

Boston—Hooper, rf; Janvrin, 2b; Walker, cf; Hoblitzel, 1b; Lewis, lf; Gardner, 3b; Scott, ss; Carrigan, c; Leonard, p.

Brooklyn—Johnston, rf; Myers, cf; Merkel, 1b; Wheat, lf; Cutshaw, 2b; Mowrey, 3b; Olson, ss; Meyers, c; Marquard, p.

First Inning.

Boston: Marquard threw out Hooper at first. Janvrin struck out, missing the third strike by a foot. Walker struck out and kicked on the decision. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Brooklyn: Johnston hit the first ball pitched to the center field fence for a three-base hit. Johnston scored on Myers' drive past Janvrin. Merkel walked. Wheat forced Merkel. Gardner to Janvrin. Myers going to third, the batter using safe at first. With Cutshaw up Wheat went to second on a wild pitch. Myers remaining on third. Myers scored when Janvrin fumbled. Cutshaw's grounder. Wheat went to third and the batter reached first safely. With Mowrey up, Carrigan tried to pick Cutshaw off first. On an attempted double steal Wheat was caught off third, Carrigan to Janvrin to Gardner. Cutshaw went to second on the play. Mowrey struck out. Two runs, two hits, one error.

Second Inning.

Boston: Hoblitzel walked, Marquard losing control of his fast ball. Lewis doubled against the right field wall, Hoblitzel going to third. Hoblitzel and Lewis scored on Gardner's home run drive to the center field fence. The Boston crowd cheered Gardner to the echo. Wheat dropped Scott's long drive and the batter made second. Carrigan sacrificed. Marquard to Merkel. Scott going to third. Leonard struck out. Hooper went out to Merkel unassisted. Three runs, two hits, one error.

Brooklyn: Gardner threw out Olson, making a pretty stop near the foul line. Myers walked. Marquard's grounder was taken by Leonard, who threw him out at first. Meyers going to second. Scott threw out Johnston at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Third Inning.

Boston: Cutshaw made a nice play on Janvrin's grounder and got his man by a step. Walker beat out an infield hit. Hoblitzel flied to Myers. With Lewis up, Walker went out stealing. Meyers to Cutshaw. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Brooklyn: Both pitchers were working very slowly and carefully. Meyers flied to Walker. Scott took Merkel's low hoist. Wheat flied to Lewis. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fourth Inning.

Boston: Lewis shot a grounder past third for a single. Marquard tried to fool him on a slow one. Gardner sacrificed. Mowrey to Merkel. Lewis going to second. Scott up. Mowrey threw out Scott after driving Lewis back to second. Carrigan singled to center and Lewis scored. Leonard walked. With Hooper up, Leonard started for second, thinking Marquard's pitch was wild, and was run down between the bases. Meyers to Merkel to Cutshaw. One run, two hits, no errors.

Brooklyn: Cutshaw doubled to right, Hooper dropping the ball after a hard run. Mowrey walked. Olson popped to Hoblitzel, trying to sacrifice. Meyers flied out to Scott. Pfeffer, batting for Marquard, fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Fifth Inning.

Boston: Cheney went into the box for Brooklyn. The crowd gave the big spit ball pitcher a round of applause. Hooper walked, Cheney losing control of his wet ball. Janvrin struck out, and Hooper went to second on a short passed ball. Cheney almost picked Hooper off second. Walker flied out to Olson. Hooper scored on Hoblitzel's double to left. Lewis fanned. One run, one hit, no errors.

Brooklyn: Johnston flied out to Lewis. Merkel singled to center. Wheat singled through Gardner. Merkel going to second. Cutshaw flied out to Lewis. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Sixth Inning.

Boston: Gardner struck out, a victim of Cheney's splitter. Scott also fanned. Carrigan drove a long single to left. Leonard fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Brooklyn: Mowrey flied to Lewis, who took the ball near the left field foul line. Scott threw out Olson. Meyers popped to Hoblitzel. No runs no hits, no errors.

Seventh Inning.

Boston: Hooper singled past Olson. Mowrey took Janvrin's bunt and threw to Olson in time to get Hooper. Olson threw out Walker. Janvrin making second. Cheney took Hoblitzel's grounder and threw past first, Janvrin scoring. The official scorer gives Hoblitzel a hit. Lewis forced Hoblitzel. Mowrey to Cutshaw. One run, two hits, one error.

Brooklyn: O'Mara batted for Cheney. O'Mara struck out. Johnston flied out to Lewis. Myers flied out to Hooper. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Eighth Inning.

Boston: Rucker pitching for Brooklyn. Gardner out, Cutshaw to Merkel. Merkel dropped Scott's high foul and was given an error. Scott out, Olson to Merkel. Carrigan fanned. No runs, no hits, one error.

Brooklyn: Merkel out, Scott to Hoblitzel. Wheat flied to Walker. Cutshaw lined to Hooper. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Ninth Inning.

Boston: Leonard fanned. Hooper singled to right and took second when Johnston fumbled the ball. Hooper out stealing. Meyers to Mowrey. Janvrin fanned. No runs, one hit, one error.

Brooklyn: Mowrey flied to Lewis. Olson walked. Meyers forced Olson. Janvrin to Scott. Getz batting for Rucker. Stengel running for Meyers. Getz out, Gardner to Hoblitzel. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Lansing Mum On Sub. Conference

Long Branch, N. J., Oct. 11.—Secretary Lansing, declining to discuss his conference last night with President Wilson on the German submarine activity off the American coast, left here today for Washington. The secretary and Mr. Wilson were up early this morning and talked briefly before the former's departure.

It was reported after Mr. Lansing left that he would stop in Atlantic City on his way to Washington to confer with members of the Mexican-American joint commission, but at the executive offices here it was asserted that he gave no indication of such an errand.

Officials here declared there was no statement to be made regarding Mr. Lansing's visit or on the fact that he and the president had discussed the submarine situation very fully. It was reiterated that on the basis of reports so far received no grounds had been found for drastic action.

Mr. Wilson left Shadow Lawn at 1:50 o'clock this afternoon for Indianapolis, where he will speak twice tomorrow. Mrs. Wilson and Secretary Tumulty accompanied him. He will return here Friday.

Say Hearst 'News' Was Home-Made

London, Oct. 11.—The morning newspapers published in conspicuous places the official order denying the International News Service further use of the Official Press Bureau and the use of cables and all other facilities for transmission of news because of its "garbling of messages and breach of faith." The order appears under such headlines as "No British News for Hearst," "News Made In America" and "American Agency's Garbling of Messages." The Daily Express says by way of comment:

"The Daily Express repeatedly has called attention to anti-British lines printed in American newspapers controlled by William R. Hearst—the New York American, the Chicago Examiner, and similar journals. This 'news' is supplied by the International News Service, which is entirely a Hearst organization. These papers will not have a line of Hearst 'news' today. This action follows repeated breaches of faith by the Hearst organization. One of the latest instances was a message in the Chicago Examiner, headed 'London In Flames,' and purporting to describe a Zeppelin raid. It was never sent from London."

In an extended editorial, the Times says:

"The disciplinary measures taken against the International News Service is a satisfactory sign that the government appreciates the importance of dealing drastically with lying news agencies. The tone of Mr. Hearst's newspapers is strongly anti-British, but the action of the government has not been inspired by any resentment at their opinions. It is in consequence of deliberate falsification of intelligence, of which the International News Agency has been repeatedly found guilty."

The Chronicle says:

"The government has taken a well justified step in depriving the International News Service of all telegraphic and mail facilities. The reason is not that Mr. Hearst's papers are pro-German, but that they have repeatedly published as coming from this country news which did not, in fact, come from it."

DEATH SIGHT TURNS BRAIN; NURSE-THIEF

Redwood City, Cal., Oct. 11.—Miss Carrie Brekt, nurse employed by Dr. G. R. Hiekok at his Silanda Beach home, will not be prosecuted for having stolen several articles, but will be examined as to her mental condition.

Frank Swart, District Attorney, is confident that the mind of the girl has been unbalanced since the killing of little Harvey T. Tognazzini, son of the vice-president of the Anglo-alifornia Trust Company of San Francisco, in April, 1915, by being run down by an automobile driven by Columbus Messner at Belmont.

Miss Brekt and a sister of the boy, who were picking flowers, witnessed the accident. Since that time the nurse had been hysterical every time an automobile was mentioned, and whereas she was formerly considered one of the most honest persons, since that event she has taken to stealing small articles.

In the office of the District Attorney, when she was asked if she had worked for the man whose little son was killed by an automobile, she immediately went into hysterics.

All the property, consisting of linen and clothing, taken by the girl has been recovered.

Texas Cotton Is Mostly Ginned.

Austin, Tex., Oct. 11.—Cotton ginned in Texas during September, 1916, totaled 4,115,603 bales, according to the report of the Texas department of agriculture, as compared to 764,986 bales for September, 1915. This is an increase of 256,617 bales. Collin county with 27,082 bales heads the list; Ellis county, 25,354; Williamson county, 20,894, and Hill county, 20,561.

NO SUBS SEEN By Steamers Recently Arriving

New York, Oct. 11.—Nothing to indicate the presence of German submarines off the American coast was observed by steamships that arrived in this port today after voyages from the east and the south. There was no unusual activity on the seas, the arrivals reported, nor were any entente warships sighted.

Washington, Oct. 11.—Allied warships now patrolling the Atlantic coast in search of the German submarine U-53 which raided enemy merchant shipping off Nantucket Sunday, would be required to ascertain the nationality of any submarine sighted before attacking it, in the belief that it was an enemy craft, according to the terms of the latest United States memorandum to the allied nations, published today. The memorandum was in reply to the allies' protest against the United States granting the right of entry to American ports to either merchant or war submarines of belligerent nations.

Commenting on the allied powers' suggestion that it might be dangerous to allow neutral submarines to visit waters in which enemy submersibles also might be found, the American memorandum declares "that responsibilities for any conflict that may arise between belligerent warships and neutral submarines must rest entirely upon the negligent powers."

The United States represents that the allies have failed to show reasons why belligerent submarines should be denied entrance into neutral waters, and reserves the free right to deal with such craft.

DAVIS TUDOR DEAD; WAS PIONEER CITIZEN

I. D. Tudor, one of the pioneer settlers of this section, died last night at 11:55 at the residence of Dr. S. W. Wilson, 168 Gonham street, where he had made his home for the past five years. Funeral services will be conducted there by Rev. W. B. Kendall at 4 o'clock this afternoon and Wilkey Lodge, I. O. O. F., will have charge of the burial at Evergreen cemetery.

Mr. Tudor was born in middle Tennessee, April 12, 1836, and was in his 81st year. When eleven months old his father, K. L. Tudor, came to Texas with his family and settled near where Pecan Gap, Delta county, is now located. Indian raids were so frequent that for the safety of his family he brought them to Paris, and in 1838-9 they moved to and settled on what is known as the "Old Tudor place," a mile east of Paris.

Davis Tudor grew to young manhood there, and in 1861 he married Miss Cynthia Rice, the daughter of another pioneer, who survives him. Later he located on a farm he bought seven miles southwest of Paris, where he and his wife lived until they came to Paris five years ago.

Mr. Tudor was the last of his family, his brothers and sisters, among whom was Mrs. John Gabbert of Paris, having preceded him to the great beyond. His death was due to a valvular affection of the heart, from which he had suffered to some extent for five years. He had a serious attack about a year ago and his death was expected, but he rallied and was able to again go about the city. Last August he was again attacked and had suffered almost continuously since then.

As a man and a citizen Davis Tudor was beyond reproach. He served in the Confederate army as a member of Col. Charles DeMorse's cavalry regiment, and was severely wounded in one of his hands. After the war closed he returned to his farm and tilled the soil till advanced age demanded that he take the rest which he had earned and for which, by thrift and forethought, he had provided. He was long a member of the Odd Fellows and enjoyed the meetings and associations of that order. While not a church member he was of the Baptist faith and lived the life of a good, moral, upright man.

It was always a sorrow to Mr. and Mrs. Tudor that no children came to bless their union, and they lavished their affection on their nieces and nephews. Mrs. Tudor's two sisters, Mesdames Emma Wilson and A. C.

NO FAIR MATCHING NICKELS FOR SOFT DRINKS COURT RULES

Austin, Tex., Oct. 11.—Matching coins for nickel soft drinks is held today by the court of criminal appeals to be a violation of the gaming laws of the state, and accordingly affirmed three cases from Fisher county in which the appellants were charged in the lower court with having matched to see who would pay for the drinks.

The appellants are Pat Wilson, Carl Ellis and Elias Glasscock. They were each fined $10 in the trial court and this was affirmed today. Associate Judge Davidson dissented and will file his reasons later.

The court today also reversed and remanded the case of W. R. Hassell from Navarro county. Hassell was given fifteen years in the penitentiary on conviction of murder.

MRS. TOM H. GRIFFITHS DIED IN FORT WORTH

Information was received late last night by relatives in Paris of the death of Mrs. Ida Griffiths, wife of Tom H. Griffiths, in a hospital in Fort Worth, where an operation, known at the time to be for a serious trouble, was performed. The body will be brought to Paris tonight and funeral services and burial will be on Friday, at a place and hour yet to be fixed.

Mrs. Griffiths is survived by her husband and three daughters, one the latter, Mrs. W. B. Graham, living in Paris, the other two in Fort Worth, where the family had moved from this city several years ago. She was a daughter of the late Orrin Hearne and leaves several brothers and sisters who with her family and many friends will mourn her untimely death.

Paul, and her brother, Z. S. Rice, all of Paris, are still living, and with them and the other relatives, many Lamar county citizens will join in sorrow for a good man's death.

Members of Wilkey Lodge, I. O. O. F., are called to meet at Moose hall on Grand avenue at 3 o'clock this afternoon to attend the funeral of Bro. Tudor.

ARMY OF ANTS ATTACKED HIVES AND DESTROYED BEES

Oakland, Cal., Oct. 11.—Dr. J. H. Callen, who had two hives of bees, much alive, on his Fruitvale avenue property, is now occupied in cleaning out two hives of dead bees, victims of an unsuccessful Verdun defense against a horde of marauding ants.

The evidence shows that the ants attacked in solid mass formation, carrying the bees' first, second and third line of trenches, and then attacking the entrance to the hives.

The little Thermopylae was defended by a few valiant bees, but they never had a chance. When the entrances were choked the ants sat down and let the rest of the garrison starve.

ANGORA GOATS HEAR CALL OF THE WILD IN OREGON

Hood River, Ore., Oct. 11.—For the last several weeks mountaineers who have made the ascent of Mount Hood have been contradicting statements of authorities on northwestern natural history by reports of having sighted wild sheep or goats high on the snowfields of the peak.

A drove of the animals near the summit of the snowpeak, huddled under the shelf of a glacial precipice, was recently seen. The mystery was explained by P. H. Mohr, a young upper valley homesteader, who was in the city on business.

"It's my herd of Angoras run wild," said Mr. Mohr.

ENGLAND BARS INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE

London, Oct. 11.—The British official press bureau has issued the following:

"The following statement is placed at the disposal of the press for publication:

"In the house of commons on June 27 last the secretary of state for the home department stated that attention had been drawn to an alleged telegram relating to the Jutland battle which appeared in certain American newspapers as having been sent from London by the correspondent of the International News Service. No such message was included in any telegram sent from this country.

"The home secretary referred on the same occasion to previous cases in which messages purported to be from the London correspondent of the International News Service bore no likeness to the cablegrams actually dispatched.

"On the first occasion referred to, the manager of the International News Service in New York gave categorical assurance that such an incident should not happen again. On the second occasion he made like promises, stating that orders had been given out that extraneous statements should not be inserted in cable dispatches.

"On the 3rd of September, cablegrams were published in the United States purporting to have come from London by the International News Service giving various false statements about the air raid of the previous night. None of the statements in question was in fact contained in any cablegram dispatched by the London correspondent of the International News Service. In view of this continued garbling of messages and breach of faith on the part of the International News Service, the secretary of state has directed that no representative of the International News Service shall be permitted to use the official press bureau and that the agency shall be debarred from the use of all other facilities for the transmission of news until further notice."

A weak President would have plunged the United States war.

It is easy to hate, easy to strike. To do so requires neither bravery nor intelligence—and these are the very attributes which must characterize our Chief Executive if he is to guide the nation aright.

The courage, the devotion and the statesmanship of Woodrow Wilson have saved the nation from a horror and a crime. He played for the verdict of mankind and he has won the verdict.

He has stood firm against the lying clamor of concessionaires basely willing to guarantee their dividends with the blood of American youth.

It is not alone that the United States is at peace, that the land is not filled with a vast crying, that homes are not darkened, that our eyes are not scarred by the sight of the blind, the mangled and the wrecked.

International law has been upheld, the rights of neutral nations secured, and civilization itself saved from the world ruin that would have followed America's leap into madness.

It has been shown that greed does not dominate us, that we square our practices with our professions, and that weaker peoples need not fear our friendship.

Even while feeding the hungry of the world, relieving wretchedness, and championing humanity, we stand ready to conduct those negotiations by which peace will come again to the world.

Woodrow Wilson has given you peace and prosperity without sacrifice of principle, without loss of honor.

Are these blessings nothing to you?

Do you want to serve notice upon mankind that the United States favors a policy of war and conquest?

Do you stand for the proposition that no President may expect re-election who offends High Finance or who refuses to take his foreign policies from concessionaires and alien conspirators?

If not, then show it.

Woodrow Wilson's campaign fund must come from the people, for it is the people alone that he has served and that he will serve.

STOCKING MAKES

SHIRT FOR POOR

BALE IN BELGIUM

San Francisco, Oct. 11.—A little baby's shirt, made from an open-work stocking, sent to Belgium from America, was the mutely appealing witness to the poverty and want in Belgium received today by the California branch of the Commission for Relief in Belgium.

The unique souvenir of a nation's need was sent to Miss Mary Gamble by Mrs. Vernon L. Kellogg of this city, who is now in Brussels assisting in the relief work. The green stocking was used for the body of the shirt, and the lacey ankles provided the sleeves. The Belgian mother, to gloss over the makeshift appearance of the little garment, had edged it with a heavy blue cord.

E. C. Thurston, who brought the gift from Mrs. Kellogg, also brought a pair of little baby slippers, made from coarse green denim, with carpet soles, and lined with old red flannel.

TAKING RESCUED

CREW TO GALVESTON

New York, Oct. 11.—News was received here by wireless of the rescue of seven men believed to be from the schooner T. W. Duan, by the steamship El Rio of the Southern Pacific Steamship Company, about 250 miles south of Savannah, Georgia. The El Rio said she had picked up the crew of the "Bunn" and that the vessel was waterlogged.

No steamer named Bunn is listed in the marine records. The T. W. Duan left New Orleans September 10 for Barcelona, Spain. The shipwrecked crew is being taken to Galveston, Texas.

C. W. Nichols has gone to Fort Towson where he has accepted a position. His family will join him later.

RUSTLE ANOTHER NICKEL

IF YOU WOULD EAT CHILI

Dallas, Oct. 11.—There are placards in local restaurants heralding a wilting fact to Dallas epicureans. These placards state that, beginning Thursday, chili "mediums" and "straights" will be 15 cents instead of a dime. No more can the hungry wayfarer buy a "bloody" fed for a thin ten-cent piece.

Restaurant men of Dallas are placing the rise to the advance in the articles, which go to make this delicate diet. Bread, which has been selling for 45 cents a pan—eight loaves—has advanced to 60 cents. Lard four cents and beans three and four cents within the last few weeks.

"Ham and" at lunch counters has advanced from the old "two-bit" standby to 30 cents, and other articles of diet in a like ratio. The only escape is the combination of eggs and chili, which is remaining at 15 cents. This consists of two fried eggs with chili gravy, in the song of the waiter, known as "try two red."

George Lang, well known restaurant man, says that there has been a steady advance in all food products for the last two years. Bread, he says, has gone up in the last two weeks, 25 per cent. Milk has also gone up in price. Mr. Lang says that despite the continued advance in nearly all food products, the restaurant men have only raised the prices on a few articles to take care of the general advance in food products.

CIVIC LEAGUE MAKE PLEA FOR CLEANLINESS

How many people know that it is unlawful to litter the streets?

That there is an ordinance against street, alley or sidewalk?

That there is an ordinance against expectorating or spitting, or the casting of any partially chewed or smoked cigarette or cigar upon any sidewalk, public building, street car, or public vehicle, place or building of public resort within the city limits?

These things and many more good things you can easily find in the charter and revised ordinances of the city of Paris. Just why they are there, or why they were ever made, we wonder, for we have only to look about us, to know that they are never enforced. Did you ever think how easy it would be for you to keep these ordinances, and what a wonderful difference you might make in the cleanliness, appearance and healthfulness of Paris?

Some one once said "True politeness is consideration for other people." Sifted down in even the smallest thing that is true. Can't you, and can't you teach your children, to consider the community in which you live, and not heedlessly and selfishly litter the yards, sidewalks and streets, that belong to others. And oh! can't you, if you have the least consideration for the efforts we are making for a cleaner, better Paris, can't you refrain from spitting anywhere?

WHERE MERE FAN'S MONEY GOES DURING THE WORLD'S SERIES

Here are a few samples of conversations heard these days on the street cars, in cigar shops, or around the tickers:

"Jiminy, but those ball players are lucky guys. Look at the way they will divvy up after the world's series."

"They'll be 50,000 at every game, and it takes all night to count the receipts and they split fifty-fifty."

"Yes, and ye can gamble they'll play seven games, and work in a tie game or two to boost up the dough pile."

"Naw, yer wrong. Taint the players but the empires that makes the games to stand in with the national committee. The ball players divvy the receipts of four games and the committee gets the rest."

"Betchertensbuske yer don't know watchin' talkin' about. The players splits the kale after each game, sixty and forty. A friend of mine who knows Joe Jackson told me so."

Fans Give Many Figures.

The newspapers of the entire country make a feature each year of the commercial end of the big event, and give all the smallest details concerning the division of the receipts, yet you will hear year after year the same amount of misinformation regarding the distribution of the finances of the annual baseball derby. Perhaps that is not remarkable, though, when so many fans write in to inquire about so simple a matter as how the standings of the teams are figured.

George Huff, who spent a great deal of the time the University of Illinois could spare him in watching professional baseball and scouting for major league teams, once said he had learned there is nothing in the United States that everybody thinks they know more about than baseball, but nothing that they really know less about.

A Fan Never Is Wrong.

Listen to the next fan argument you encounter and you will discover that every participant in it is absolutely sure of every statement he makes and will give in to no argument to the contrary. Almost every fan is positive in his opinion, his likes and dislikes. But if you listen hard enough you will line up a great amount of wrong information such as that reproduced at the beginning of this effort.

With practically no revision in twelve years, the distribution of the world's series coin has been made according to the rules now in force. The only change has been to increase the percentage of the players' share slightly, and that was done ten years ago. But the baseball public reads routine information curiously, if at all, and forgets between seasons.

Otherwise, every one would know that the split in coin is made in a hard and fast method which sometimes works an injustice to the players in a long series but which is absolutely necessary to preserve the world's series from suspicion.

Players Share in Four Games.

For that reason the players of the two competing teams share in the receipts of only the first four games. The winning and losing of the games depends wholly on the players, not on the club owners, the umpires, or the national commission. Consequently, the rules tend to make the athletes win or lose the series as quickly as possible, by cutting them entirely out of the financial end of it after four games have been played. Also any jockeying is prevented by making the winners' share of the players' pool considerably larger than the losers', so that no chance to keep the winning share early will be passed up under any circumstances.

The club owners have practically nothing to do with the financial end of the world's series except to provide the accommodations and the necessary men to handle the crowds as well as possible and to pay the cost of staging the big event in addition to the players' salary—for the players' share of the receipts is all velvet because they draw their salaries the same as in the regular season.

Commission Handles All Coin.

The national commission takes charge of all the moneys and accounts publicly for every cent of it. For surrounding the world's series with this public guarantee of good faith, paying the men who handle the money and the umpires who handle the games, the national commission takes 10 per cent of the gross receipts of every game played before any other cut is made.

That leaves 90 per cent of course, and said 90 per cent of the receipts of each of the first four games is split into two piles. Sixty per cent of it is paid into the pool which is to be divided among the players at the end of the series. Not a cent is turned over to any one, player or magnate, until the whole series is over and the winner decided. The other 40 per cent of the receipts of the first four games goes into the club owners' pool to reimburse them for railroad, hotel, and other costs of the games and for the salaries paid their players.

When four games have been decided, if there is no winner determined, there is a new division of the receipts which omits the players entirely. Their pool is declared closed and is retained until it is known which team is entitled to the winner's share. Then the pool is divided into two amounts, the winning team getting 60 per cent of the said pool and the losing team 40 per cent. These two amounts are divided equally among the eligible players of each team. Although there have been instances in the past of substitute players being deprived of an equal share, every effort has been made to wipe out that practice of late years.

When more than four games are necessary, as has been the case in every year except 1914, the national commission continues to extract its 10 per cent from the gross receipts of each game. Then the remainder of all the receipts (after four games) is divided equally between the club owners. It makes no difference to the men who own the team which wins. There is no winning and losing percentage for them.

Possibly it will be plainer if a concrete illustration is given in "vulgar fractions," so to speak. Mr. Fan, we will say, buys a $5 seat for each of the first four games of a world's series. He pays a total of $20 for them. This is how his $20 eventually is divided: National commission, $2; players' pool $18—Winning team, $6.48, losing team, $4.32; club owners, $3.60 apiece.

If there is a fifth game and Mr. Fan buys his $5 seat for it, the division is like this: National commission, 50 cents; players, nothing; club owners, $2.25 apiece.

BURGLARS GET FEW

CENTS; MISS $20,000

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 11.—After spending an entire night in a large department store here, thieves bound and gagged the watchman at daylight and made four attempts to blow open the office safe.

The outer door of the safe was blown to bits, but the inner one held. The safe contained only a few cents. The day's receipts, totaling $20,000, had been stored in another strong box.

The watchman, threatened by the would-be burglars, fled them to the empty safe instead of that containing the money. They were frightened away before they discovered their mistake.

"TUBE" CONDUCTORS, GUARDS AND GATEMEN THREATEN STRIKE

New York, Oct. 11.—About 300 conductors, guards and gatemen employed by the Hudson and Manhattan railroad which operates the tubes under the Hudson river between Manhattan and railroad stations in Jersey City, Newark and Hoboken, N. J., decided early today to postpone until 4 p. m. today a contemplated strike. The postponement followed a virtually unanimous vote to strike because the company had dismissed thirty-two men for joining a union.

President Fisk of the company said the tube trains would not be tied up as the motormen were under contract to continue at work and were satisfied.

POLICE GUARDING OIL PROPERTY AT BAYONNE, N. J.

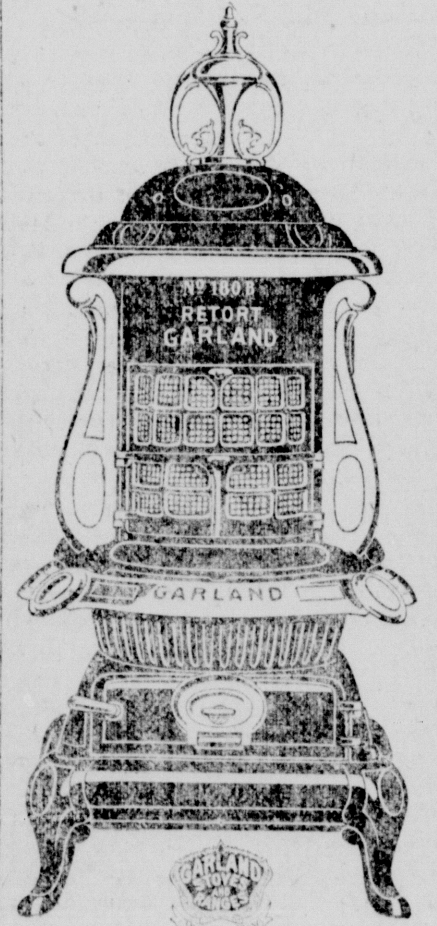

Bayonne, N. J., Oct. 11.—Virtually all the police of this city are on guard about the plants of the Standard Oil company, the Tidewater Oil company, Bergen Point Chemical Works and Vacuum Oil Company at Constable Hook, where four policemen and nine rioters were wounded yesterday in a battle between the police and 1000 strikers. Two of the strikers are not expected to recover. The policemen were not dangerously hurt.

The police are armed and most of them were entrenched early today before the yards of the Tidewater Oil company while the strikers and their sympathizers gathered a block away.

The rioting was an outgrowth of a strike of 1500 employees of the Standard Oil company which closed that plant, throwing 3000 more men out. Six hundred men of the Vacuum Oil company and 200 of the Tidewater Oil company's employees joined the strike.

The trolley lines leading to the industrial section were barricaded by strikers and sympathizers today and no cars were running. The companies' employees went to work by roundabout routes, many being transported on tugboats and motor boats.

After a small disturbance early in the day the police arrested two men. It was asserted that many of the strikers and their followers appeared to be carrying weapons.

FIND NO TRACE OF KINGSTONIAN'S MISSING CREW

Newport, R. I., Oct. 11.—The United States destroyers which have been searching for the crew of the British steamer Kingstonian, reported sunk by a German submarine off the Nantucket shoal light ship on Sunday last, returned here today. None of them reported having found any trace of the Kingstonian's boats. The sea was very rough and the weather cold during yesterday and last night.

What became of the submarine after she completed her raid on British and neutral steamers Sunday night remained a mystery today. The movement of allied warships which are supposed to have increased the vigilance of their patrol off the coast after receiving word of the sinking of six steamers, also was unknown here.

DIVORCE CASE TAKEN
UNDER ADVISEMENT

A novel divorce suit was heard in Judge Denton's court yesterday which was the first case of the kind that has come before him during the several years that he has occupied the bench. It was not exactly a suit for divorce, but was more in the nature of a suit to annul the marriage contract on the ground that it was illegal and void. The plaintiff in his petition set up the allegation that the defendant was of unsound mind at the time he married her, and was, therefore, under the law incapacitated from making a marriage contract or any other contract.

The plaintiff alleged that while his wife was insane when he married her he didn't know it at the time. The plaintiff had been married before and had two little children. He alleged that on the second day after the marriage the defendant jumped on one of the children and gave it a beating just to show a visitor that she could whip it. The petition alleged that the defendant kept getting more peculiar and that after they had been married ten days, he carried her to her brother's home and left her with him, her parents being dead. Since they separated, it was alleged, the defendant had been adjudged insane and was now in the asylum.

After hearing the petition presented and the evidence Judge Denton took the case under advisement as he had never been called on before to decide a case under similar circumstances.

GRASS FIRE CAME NEAR PROVING SERIOUS

An alarm was turned in at 3:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon for a grass fire on the right-of-way of the Paris & Mt. Pleasant railroad between South Main and Seventeenth streets. It is not known how the fire originated. The firemen did not use a line of hose, but used some chemicals, and they had to work hard beating out the fire with their coats in order to prevent the flames from reaching several hundred bales of cotton that were piled on the ground a short distance away. There was no damage done.

SEVERAL COUNTRY
SCHOOLS ARE VISITED

J. A. Fulks, acting county superintendent, and L. T. Cunningham of Austin, who is connected with the department of education as rural school supervisor, returned Tuesday night from a two days trip over the country on a visit to the schools that have applied for a share of the million dollar fund provided by the legislature to help rural schools on certain conditions. The schools in Lamar county that have applied to participate in the distribution of the fund which they visited are: Fore Hill, Sumner, Rockhill, Ambia Crossroads, Linden, Biardstown, Milton, Minter, Poastook (north of Blossom) and Pattonville.

Mr. Fulks stated that they inspected all of them, eleven in number and that most of them would get the state aid, which is granted on certain conditions. Among the requirements are that the school building must be well lighted and ventilated thoroughly equipped with a library and modern heating system, and must have sanitary drinking conveniences and sanitary premises. The amount of the special financial assistance rendered the schools under the million dollar law ranges from $200 to $500, according to needs.

MURPHY'S DRUG STORE
BACK TO OLD STAND

Murphy's Drug Store, which had been on the south side of the old public square so long that it was looked on as a fixture, is now back in the new white brick building on the old lot, ready for business.

Just a while before the fire R. J. Murphy had refitted his store, making it one of the prettiest, most convenient stores in this section. It was the culmination of his years of doing business in which he had built up a stay-with-him trade that never thought of any other drug store being in existence. The loss of this handsome store, however, did not dismay Murphy's. In temporary quarters on South Main street, the store went on serving the public, and orders were placed for furniture and fixtures even better than those destroyed. The new store is complete and perfect in every respect and the old spirit of Murphy's—to satisfy every customer on every purchase—is still its guiding star.

You are invited to call or telephone when in need of real drug service.

There will be a box supper at Hopewell Saturday night, Oct. 14th, for the benefit of the church. Everybody invited to come and bring well filled baskets.

RUMORED SHAKE-UP IN FACULTY OF UNIVERSITY

Austin, Tex., Oct. 11.—The great secrecy is being maintained by the members of the board of regents of the University of Texas as to the proceedings of their special meeting here Tuesday, at which Governor Ferguson seems to have appeared in the stellar role. The session lasted until late in the evening and no information was given out as to the business transacted. Members of the board are silent and Governor Ferguson declined to make any statement. He was with the board all of the morning session and a part of the afternoon session. He left for Temple and will not return to Austin until Thursday. The board resumed its meeting Wednesday.

Secretary E. J. Mathews of the board of regents, who usually gives out information to the press, when asked for a report of the proceedings flatly declined to say anything further than that he had been given instructions by the board not to make public any part of the proceedings. President Vinson also declined to talk for publication.

Some kind of official statement is expected to be given out when the board adjourns. It is said that the governor presented a lengthy document to the board and that it contained accusations against certain members of the faculty. It is also understood that he went fully into the subject of university finances.

Three "On arpet."
Rumors in circulation are that at least three members of the faculty appeared before the board. Whether they were there in response to summons or by invitation is not publicly known. It is said that Dr. W. J. Battle, former acting president of the university and now dean of the faculty; Dr. W. T. Mather, head of the department of physics; and John A. Lomax, secretary of the faculty, were before the board. According to report Dr. C. S. Potts of the school of government and Dr. A. Caswell Ellis of the department of extension and R. E. Cofer of the law department may appear.

Dr. Mather declined to discuss the subject. He admitted, however, that he had been before the board.

It is understood that the governor presented his case in a most emphatic manner. The general opinion is that the governor will not be satisfied until there has been an order from the board dismissing certain members of the faculty who are not looked upon with favor by the executive. The crisis is expected.

Fred W. Cook of San Antonio, chairman of the board, was the only member absent. He was unable to attend on account of illness.

WOMAN STOLE $500 TO ELOPE, IS CHARGE

Phillipsburg, N. J., Oct. 11.—Miss Margaret Raub of Phillipsburg, and Earl Myers, of Slaton, Pa., were arrested today, the former on a larceny charge and Myers as an accomplice.

It is said that Miss Raub, who was cashier for the Easton Furniture Company, met Myers a month ago, became infatuated with him and eloped last Monday after she had drawn her savings from the bank and stolen more than $500 of her employer's money.

They bought an automobile and went driving about the country, returning today from Philadelphia. Miss Raub gave bail. Myers waived extradition and went to Easton, where he was committed to prison. He will be prosecuted under the Mann white slave act.

NEW YORKER SAYS BERLIN ADMITS BREMEN IS LOST

New York, Oct. 11.—Herbert Bayard Swope, editor of the New York World, who returned home Tuesday from a visit to Berlin, confirms the loss of the merchant submarine through admissions he says were made by the president of the company operating the line of commercial submarine vessels.

Mr. Swope also stated that he found peace overtures were never further from the minds of the Germans.

Buried Man Digs Out.

WAR-TIME INFLUENCE ON NEW FASHIONS FROM FRENCH CAPITAL

Paris, Sept. 25. (Correspondence)—New fashions for women have raised a discussion as to the propriety of the imitation of the "Poliu's" uniform by either men or women.

Women's hat in the form of the Adrien helmet, worn by the French soldiers in the trenches, have made their appearance for the second time while some dressmaker have ornamented gowns with braid in the form, disposition of colors of the "fourragers" or aiguillettes that adorn the uniforms of regiments and battalions cited in order.

Stuffs in the colors in the war cross ribbon—red and green—are also very largely used and cloaks in khaki with a profusion of pockets recalling the Tommy Atkins are being prepared to be launched for spring. This effort to give a more military tone to women's wear is attributed to the dressmaker and milliner more than to the wearer and is severely condemned by part of the French press as a commercial dodge that does not harmonize with the general feeling. Khaki, horizon blue, the red and green braid of the "fourragers" and the Adrien helmet, they maintain, should be sacred to the fighting men.

The helmet, after falling once is again meeting with poor success and it is held that the war cross colors in skirts will not stand the contrast with the ever increasing black.

If you were as careful of the medicines you take when sick as you are anxious about the disease it is taken for—a wonderful difference in your future health would result. Remember—any mineral is a violent material to cast into your delicate interior. Demand genuine S.S.S. at your druggist, it is purely vegetable and the Standard Blood Remedy.

FINDS BABY SHE THOUGHT BURIED ALIVE IN HOSPITAL

New York, Oct. 11.—Probably the happiest woman in the world was Mrs. John Valkoff, of 4 Madison street, yesterday; the most sorrowful was Mrs. Michael Naps, of 4 Vineyard avenue, Yonkers.

Mrs. Valkoff's baby, Rose, 18 months, was in the Yonkers Contagious Hospital a fortnight ago. There, too, was Mrs. Naps' girl baby, of the same age, both with infantile paralysis, looking alike—all babies look so much alike at 18 months. What supposedly was the body of Mrs. Valkoff's baby was sent to her in a sealed casket a couple of weeks ago. The casket was put under ground and Rose's parents mourned. Mrs. Valkoff was called to the hospital yesterday.

"My baby, whom I thought I buried," she shrieked, plucking her to her bosom.

"And I've lost mine!" wailed Mrs. Naps and fainted.

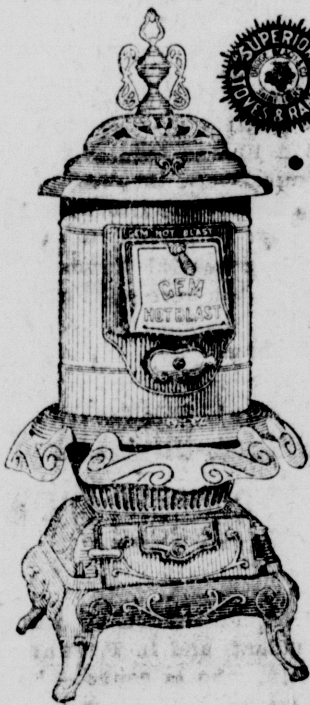

"The babies looked so much alike," was the only explanation offered at the hospital yesterday. "Both of foreign descent, you know."

French Gain More Ground On Somme
Paris, Oct. 11.—In the course of last night French troops gained more ground south of the River Somme, it was announced today at the French war department.

SUES FRIENDS, WHO
HE SAYS ACCUSED
HIM OF MURDER

Villisca, Ia., Oct. 11.—State Senator F. F. Jones served notice on nine persons, eight of them friends and neighbors for a quarter of a century, that he would seek to collect $25,000 from each because they were influenced to believe, so he says, from an idle remark of an irresponsible fortune teller, that he was guilty of murder.

The suits, for a total of $250,000, will allege that the nine persons, all but one of them old residents of the county, sought to hold Jones responsible for the eight Villisca ax murders of June 9, 1912, in the home of J. B. Moore, Jones' business competitor.

LITERARY HEN LAYS AN EGG WITH PIECE OF NEWSPAPER

Quincy, Mass., Oct. 11.—Rivaling at least, if not transcending in importance the famous question asked by a former king of England as to how the apple got inside the dumpling is the question that Mrs. Sarah C. Williams, of Cross street, would like to have scientists, ornithologists or anybody else answer.

Mrs. Williams broke open an egg today, after the egg had been boiled. Inside she found a piece of newspaper about half an inch long and an eighth of an inch wide. There were a few lines of print on the paper, and Mrs. Williams could make out these words: "To be known," and underneath, "go to." The egg was in good condition.

Plenty of nice tomatoes and sweet peppers at Hallinger & Blard.

'HEALER' RUINED HER HEALTH; WOMAN SUES

Mauch Chunk, Pa., Oct. 11.—Hannah and Joseph Riegel, of Waverly, N. Y., yesterday brought suit against P. E. Gerber, of Lehighton, a "healer," for $5500 damages, $500 for Mrs. Riegel and $500 for Mr. Riegel.

The plaintiff's statement alleges that Gerber claims to be able to cure ailments of the human body by incantations, hypnotism, laying on of hands, manipulation, and what is commonly called "pow-wowing." After several of the treatments Mrs. Riegel became worse, and charges that the defendant took hold of her left ankle, wrenched the knee, bruised and wounded it and made her a nervous wreck.

She alleges she has been permanently injured by the "healer," is unable to perform her household duties, and that her husband has been put to a heavy expense in endeavoring to have her cured.

THE BOGANY LUNATIC BAKERS, THE FUNNIEST
ACT ON EARTH, ENGAGED FOR STATE FAIR

THOSE cynical persons who declare that real humor is a lost art are warmly urged to pay a visit to the State Fair of Texas this year and see the antics of the Bogany Troupe of Lunatic Bakers. It's pretty sure that after seeing this act they will have reason to change their minds, for the Bogany's are just about the funniest and cleverest comedians before the public today.

This act during the past season has been the big humorous hit of the big New York Hippodrome and is described as one of the most thoroughly enjoyable collections of nonsense now being performed. The Bogany troupe is composed of eight comedians, each with a worldwide reputation. They have been engaged for the entire period of the State Fair, Oct. 14 to 29.

MEXICO, IT SEEMS, WILL INSIST ON WITHDRAWAL

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 11.—Schooled by General Tasker H. Bliss, assistant chief of staff of the American army, the American members of the Mexican-American joint commission met Carranza's representatives here today for further consideration of the different plans suggested for protecting life and property along the Mexican border. Both American and Mexican commissioners professed belief in the final agreement of some feasible plan of border control, but none was willing to prophesy a culmination of their deliberations on that subject for some days.

Nothing has arisen in the discussions so far that would indicate any alteration of the Mexicans' insistence on the withdrawal of the American troops from Chihuahua, or that indicated an unwillingness of the Americans to regard withdrawal as a basic feature of the conference.

Arredondo En Route Washington.

San Antonio, Texas, Oct. 11.—Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican ambassador-designate to the United States, left here today for Washington. He was accompanied by Colonel Juan Barragan, chief of staff to Carranza, and other representatives of the de facto government.

RULING MADE BY U. S.

AS TO WARSHIPS

New York, Oct. 11.—Nothing to indicate the presence of German submarines off the American coast was observed by steamships that arrived in this port today after voyages from the east and the south. There was no unusual activity on the seas, the arrivals reported, nor were any entente warships sighted.

Washington, Oct. 11.—Allied warships now patrolling the Atlantic coast in search of the German submarine U-53 which raided enemy shipping off Nantucket Sunday, would be required to ascertain the nationality of any submarine sighted before attacking it, in the belief that it was an enemy craft, according to the terms of the latest United States memorandum to the allied nations, published today. The memorandum was in reply to the allies' protest against the United States granting right of entry to American ports of either merchant or war submarines of belligerent nations.

Commenting on the allied powers' suggestion that it might be dangerous to allow neutral submarines to visit waters in which enemy submarines also might be found, the American memorandum declares "that responsibilities for any conflict that may arise between belligerent warships and neutral submarines must rest entirely upon the negligent powers."

The United States represents that the allies have failed to show reasons why belligerent submarines should be denied entrance into neutral waters, and reserves the free right to deal with such craft.

Better Prices Paid for Farm Produce

Washington, Oct. 11.—Prices of farm products continue to rise. Producers were being paid 27.6 per cent more on Oct. 1 than a year ago, the department of agriculture announced today in its monthly statement of the level of the prices on principal crops. That level increased 1.3 per cent during September compared with a decrease of about 3 per cent during that month in the last eight years. Oct. 1, two years ago, prices were 19.9 per cent lower than on that date this year, and the average for the last eight years on Oct. 1 was 22.8 per cent lower.

NO NEW SIGHT

OF U-BOAT NEAR

SAVANNAH, GA.

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 11.—If a submarine is lurking in waters of the South Atlantic coast, as unofficially reported yesterday, it had successfully evaded detection today. Credence given first reports diminished to such an extent today that Captain Glover of the British steamship Noya cleared his vessel this morning and announced he expected to sail later in the day.

Persons familiar with waters about Savannah today scouted the theory that nearby islands could be successfully used as a submarine base. While there are many islands near this port practically every one is inhabited and passages about them are extremely treacherous for a navigator not thoroughly familiar with shifting mud banks. Ossabaw Island, one of the largest, is a game preserve on which caretakers are maintained and which is carefully watched for poachers. Hundreds of fishermen get their living from waters about the Warsaw and Ossabaw Islands.

A. M. Brookfield, British consul here, and local customs officials who yesterday said they had heard a submarine was off the Georgia coast but who then declined to give their source of information, today stated that the report was based on "street rumors." At noon nothing additional was learned that would tend to substantiate the report.

GULF COAST SEEMS

SAFE; STORM GONE

Washington, Oct. 11.—The gulf coast appears to be safe from a tropical storm for the present at least. Weather bureau reports today indicated that the disturbance, which was near Porto Rico Tuesday, apparently had passed to the southward.

Low pressure still prevails over the Caribbean with unsettled weather.

THIS WILL PREVENT TOWELS STRETCHING

It's a discouraging thing to spend time and patience on strips of flannel to adorn guest towels, and have them stretch in the wash and look like misfits.

A writer in the Woman's Home Companion this month advises inserting the flannel within an inch of the selvage, not to the very edge, as is usually done. This will prevent the annoying stretching and the edge of the towel will be firmer and have a neater appearance as well.
